Established in 1991, Loudoun County High School (LCHS) is a comprehensive public high school located in Leesburg, Virginia. With over 2,500 students enrolled, LCHS offers a wide range of academic programs and extracurricular activities in a dynamic and supportive learning environment.

Academics

LCHS offers a rigorous college preparatory curriculum that challenges students and prepares them for higher education. Core courses include English, mathematics, science, social studies, and foreign languages. AP and honors courses are available in various subjects, allowing students to pursue their interests and develop their academic potential.

In addition to the core curriculum, LCHS provides a variety of specialized programs, including:

- Academy of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM): Focuses on preparing students for careers in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.
- Academy of Health Sciences: Provides hands-on experience in the healthcare field and prepares students for careers in nursing, medicine, and allied health.

- Academy of Business and Finance: Develops students' business acumen and prepares them for careers in business, finance, and entrepreneurship.
- Academy of Visual and Performing Arts: Nurtures students' artistic talents and provides opportunities for them to excel in music, theater, dance, and visual arts.

Extracurricular Activities

LCCHS offers a wide range of extracurricular activities, including athletics, clubs, and student organizations. Students can participate in varsity sports teams, such as football, basketball, soccer, and lacrosse. There are also numerous clubs and organizations, such as Academic Bowl, Debate Team, Model United Nations, and Student Council.

Through these activities, students develop leadership skills, learn teamwork, and explore their interests outside of the classroom.

School Community

LCCHS fosters a strong sense of community among students, parents, and staff. The school has an active parent-teacher association (PTA) that supports school programs and initiatives. There are also numerous opportunities for parents to volunteer and participate in school events.

LCCHS is committed to providing every student with a supportive and inclusive learning environment. The school has a dedicated team of counselors and administrators who are available to assist students with academic, social, and emotional needs.
