Plot

The story begins when Kimihito is tasked with hosting Miia, a Lamia monster, as part of the government's Monster Integration Program. Miia is a kind-hearted and gentle monster, but she is also very naive and innocent. She quickly becomes attached to Kimihito and begins to follow him around everywhere he goes.

As Kimihito tries to adjust to life with Miia, he is also introduced to a number of other female monsters, including Papi, a Harpy; Doppel, a Slime; and Mero, a Mermaid. Each of these monsters has their own unique personality and quirks, and they all quickly become part of Kimihito's growing harem.

The story follows Kimihito and the monsters as they navigate the challenges of living together, including cultural differences, language barriers, and the occasional monster attack. Through it all, they learn to love and accept each other for who they are.

Characters

Kimihito Kurusu is the main protagonist of the series. He is a kind-hearted and gentle college student who is always willing to help others. Despite his initial reluctance to host Miia, he quickly grows to care for her and the other monsters.

Miia is a Lamia monster who is the first monster to be introduced in the series. She is a kind-hearted and gentle monster who is very naive and innocent. She quickly becomes attached to Kimihito and begins to follow him around everywhere he goes.
