In this article, you'll learn how to play simple melodies by letter. You'll also learn how to transpose them to different keys. This will allow you to play any song you want, regardless of its original key.

How to Play Simple Melodies by Letter

The first step to playing simple melodies by letter is to learn the letters that correspond to the notes on the musical staff.

- C = middle C
- D = the note above C

- E = the note above D
- F = the note above E
- G = the note above F
- A = the note above G
- B = the note above A

Once you know the letters that correspond to the notes on the musical staff, you can start playing simple melodies by letter.

To play a melody by letter, simply find the letter that corresponds to the note on the musical staff and play that note on your instrument.

For example, to play the melody "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" by letter, you would play the following notes:
