To Cast the First Stone

We all have a past. Some of us have a past that we're proud of, while others have a past that we'd rather forget. But no matter what our past looks like, it's important to remember that we're all on a journey. And sometimes, that journey leads us to places we never thought we'd go.

For some people, that journey leads them to redemption.

Redemption is the act of being forgiven for something wrong that you've done. It's a process of healing and growth that can help you to move on from your past and live a better life.
